

Are you bitten by privacy, data protection and security? Then our GDPR consultant position will definitely interest you!

We are looking for multiple GDPR consultants to reinforce our team and help our clients to get ready by the 25th of May 2018. In less than a year from now the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) will come into effect. As this is considered the most important change in data privacy regulation in 20 years, Akkade is here to make sure your company is ready.

What will you be doing?

As a GDPR consultant you will work on the business side of INFORMATION SECURITY AND PRIVACY Issues. You will be responsible for:

- Implementing a strategy for privacy, data protection and information security.
- Evaluating environments, analyzing business processes and reporting to higher management and other stakeholders.
- Keeping up-to-date with the latest news and threats in the security industry.
- Identifying vulnerable systems and suggest changes to these systems.
- Determining the best defense for software and hardware.
- Provide guidance for secure development.
- Respond to current threats and help mitigate damages (participate in SIRT).

What are we looking for?

- You have a Bachelor or Master degree in applied economics, commercial sciences, commercial engineering, information security, industrial engineering or computer sciences.
- A good experience within corporate environments with a good knowledge of business processes.
- A profound interest in IT, Security and Privacy. Certificates like CISSP, CEH, DPO, etc. are an important plus.
- We are looking for communicative, client focused consultants.
- You speak fluent Dutch or French and English.

What can we offer you?

Akkade can offer you an interesting career within Information Security, Privacy and Data protection as a certified GDPR consultant. We offer you an attractive and competitive compensation package, with a company car and fringe benefits. You will receive on the job training and will be able to follow the necessary courses and get certified in relevant fields of expertise.

If you have read this far, why don't you come over for a cup of coffee and discuss this opportunity with us. You can send us your resume to jobs@akkade.be. We are looking forward meeting you soon!
